

Civil War Round Table of St. Charles December 2025 Newsletter

Our next meeting is this coming Tuesday, December 2, at 7:00 p.m.

This month marks our second annual Cookies, Cocoa, and a Documentary meeting. Bring your favorite cookies if you'd like, and we'll choose a documentary from several options. We'll also take a few moments to reflect on our 2025 program—what we enjoyed most—and discuss our plans for another exciting year in 2026.

And if you don't have cookies to bring, no worries—there will be plenty to share.

In December, we have a rare opportunity to experience antebellum Missouri history firsthand. On Sunday, December 7, Pamela and Steven Moss have graciously invited the members of the Civil War Round Table of St. Charles to tour their antebellum home in Louisiana, Missouri. Steven will also present a living-history program for the group.

The tour begins at 1:00 p.m. at the home, located at 320 Main Street in Louisiana.

- Carpooling: Those wishing to carpool should meet at 11:30 a.m. at the commuter parking lot in St. Peters, on Main Street at N. Mid Rivers Mall Drive, across from Quick Trip.
- Driving separately: Please arrive by 12:45 p.m. at the Moss home.

Following the tour, we will stop at AJ's Tex-Mex and Bar-B-Q in Elsberry for additional fellowship and a late lunch or early supper.

Special thanks to Patricia and Grant Clark for arranging this unique and memorable outing!

Our tentative agenda for 2026 is now complete. We have an excellent mix of member and guest speakers covering a wide range of Civil War topics, along with several enjoyable outings scheduled throughout the year. You can review the complete list on page 3 of the newsletter.

I am hoping to add a speaker from Missouri Humanities to replace one of my presentations, though I have not yet reached him. I am also open to adjustments, and I would be happy to postpone one of my talks if you would like to step forward and present on a topic of your choice.

Please note that outing dates are tentative and we can adjust them if necessary. I also want to add a workday for us to move headstones at Peruque Creek Fort. A date in late winter, before poison ivy begins to grow, would be good.

We now have our own web page, thanks to Dorris Keeven-Franke, who created the Civil War Round Table of St. Charles County website. Check out the website for upcoming events and to see what we've been up to in the past.

We meet at the Kathryn Linnemann Library, 2323 Elm Street in St. Charles, where presentations begin at 7:00 p.m.

In January, we will open our 2026 campaign with a look at one of the most unique military organizations produced during the Civil War: the Missouri State Guard. The Guard was established by the Missouri Legislature on May 10, 1861, in response to the Camp Jackson Massacre in St. Louis. Governor Claiborne Jackson appointed Sterling Price as Major General and commander of the Missouri State Guard.

A strongly pro-Southern force, the State Guard fought to bring Missouri into the Confederacy. Its soldiers engaged federal forces across Missouri and Arkansas—often without support from the Confederate Army and with extremely limited logistics—until they were finally driven from Missouri in February 1862.

Although the majority of its members eventually enlisted in the Confederate Army, the Missouri State Guard continued to exist, in reduced numbers, until the end of the war.

Greg's presentation last month on Shelby's 1863 Missouri Raid is now available on our YouTube channel:

Our channel continues to grow—Greg's video has already received more than 200 views—and several additional presentations are now available. If you missed a meeting or would like to revisit a program, I encourage you to explore the full selection of videos on our page.

Please remember to Like and Subscribe, as this greatly improves our visibility in search results. Feel free to share the link to our YouTube channel and website with anyone who may be interested.

Special thanks to Greg and Daniel Waters for managing and updating our channel.

In addition to their formal monthly meetings, the Civil War Round Table of St. Louis hosts a small informal discussion group for more intimate conversations about the Civil War. The group meets at 11:00 a.m. at the Hearth Room Café, 265 Lamp and Lantern Village, in Town and Country. They typically gather on the first Thursday of each month.

If you plan to attend, please RSVP to Paul at pvh1225@aol.com.

Steve Tesson and I have attended several of these meetings, and they are always engaging and informative. This month, the meeting will be held on Thursday, December 18

If you're interested in what other Civil War Round Tables are up to, check out the Civil War Round Table Congress website.
